

CIFE Quiz Preparation

This year, Cherwell College will be competing in the third annual CIFE COLLEGE CHALLENGE on Saturday 4th March. This is an inter-college quiz event which will take place at New College of the Humanities in London and will run from 11am to 4pm.

This is a great opportunity for our students to show off, and enhance, their knowledge. Our students will be competing against other students from all over the country.

Questions will be focused on general knowledge and will cover literature, history, science, art, politics, music and maths!

Our students have been preparing in workshops with Arkaprabha 'Arka' Chakraborty,. Arka is currently reading for the MPhil in Medieval Literature at St John's. Arka has 12 years of quizzing experience behind him, having participated in, and moderated and conducted workshops on quizzing. He is an active member of the Oxford University Quiz Society and is part of the St John's University Challenge team for 2017.

During their quiz preparation sessions, students have learnt the basic rules and protocol of quizzing, as well as built-up a subject-specific knowledge basis.

Quiz prep is being taken by Chris, Ally, Ila, Lily, Fatima, Basim and Pengzhou. We hope it will enhance their knowledge and serve them well not only for the upcoming quiz, but also for their lives at University and beyond.
